

PRIVACY POLICY

The following Privacy Policy describes the manner in which BLOCKROOT MÉXICO, Sociedad Variable Capital Corporation (hereinafter BLOCKROOT or us), collects, preserves and discloses information obtained from its Users (both individually and collectively considered) through the website www.lescovex.com ("web site" or "platform") or by any of the applications through which the BLOCKROOT Services are provided.

By accessing or making use of any of the services offered by BLOCKROOT through our website or by any other application, you expressly acknowledge having had access to this privacy policy, knowing its contents and, consequently, accept the manner and form in which the information provided by you is processed by us.

This privacy policy may undergo some change to adapt it to new regulations or technological advances, as well as for any other cause from which the need to modify it may arise. These changes will be published directly on the website, indicating in the header the date of its last update, being from that moment applicable the new version that will repeal the previous one.

We recommend that you review the Privacy Policy each time you access our Services or interact with us to stay informed about our information processing practices and the ways in which we protect your information.

Please note that this Policy does not cover the information BLOCKROOT receives about you from other sources or channels external to this company.

1.- WHAT INFORMATION WE COLLECT:

1.1.- Information that you provide to us: It refers mainly to personal information and any other information that you provide to us through different channels, including, but not limited to when you create your account, use our services, or when you upload some documentation or request a new service. The type of information collected includes, but is not limited to your first and last name, e-mail, bank accounts, postal address, ID number, as well as any other information that you may provide us or that we may require for the proper compliance of the applicable regulations and, in particular, those related to the Prevention of Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and fraud prevention policies.

1.2.- Information obtained automatically when you access or use our services: from the moment you access or use our services, we automatically collect information about you, all in order to give and improve the quality of our service and, likewise, to be able to comply with current regulations and, above all, with those related to the Prevention of Money Laundering, Financing of Terrorism and fraud prevention policies. Such information includes, but is not limited to:

- Information related to the uses of our services: for example: the browser you use to access our website, the times that your accesses last, the pages you visit, your IP address and the page you visited before accessing our services.
